Dear Parents/Carers,

I'm writing to you today with immense pride regarding our Year 11 students and their fantastic start to the GCSE exam season. It has been truly inspiring to witness their dedication and resilience as they've approached their exams. They've shown a remarkable level of commitment, and we couldn't be prouder of their efforts.

To celebrate their hard work and to give them a well-deserved boost, we have something special planned for them. This Friday, May 23rd, after the English Language exam, we will be serving a special brunch, free of charge, for all Year 11 students. During this time, we'll also be giving out prom spot prizes and another special, unannounced reward before they head into their afternoon masterclasses. It's our way of acknowledging their incredible start and keeping their spirits high.

I'll be in touch again at the close of this week to provide you with details of the revision sessions that will run during the half-term break, as well as confirm the final leaving date for Year 11.

Yours faithfully,

Mr Paul Taylor
Principal
