

THE NORMANTON FREESTON FOUNDATION

THE KEITH HILL JURISPRUDENCE AWARD

The Directors of the Normanton Freston Foundation have established The Keith Hill Jurisprudence Award to acknowledge and commemorate as a lasting memorial the substantial contributions made by Keith Hill to both the Freston Foundation and the Academy.

After obtaining an appropriate first degree, some former students embark upon a further course which, on successful completion, enables them to practice as a solicitor or as a barrister.

Former students who complete at least one term of a course of this type are eligible to apply for an award of £300.00.

Applications for this award should be made for the attention of:
